'Tragic' Is Response of Arkansans

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Reaction in Arkansas Monday to the shooting earlier in the day of Alabama Gov. George Wallace was one of shock and despair.

The most statements heard from people on the street were, "You don't shoot a man just because you don't agree with him," "Everybody has a right to freedom of speech," "a sick society creates such a situation," "this will probably get him elected."

There were many more comments, including those from politicians involved in campaigns.

Gov. Dale Bumpers said he was "shocked and appalled."

"It is tragic that there are sick minds in our society who think that a particular philosophy or school of thought can be silenced by silencing a voice," he said.

"I urge all Arkansans to join me in praying for Gov. Wallace's complete recovery."

Former Gov. Orval E. Faubus said he "feels the tragedy of the shooting. Faubus said that Wallace was a 'brave man physically and had as much courage politically of any 20 men I know.'"

Faubus said that "coddling" of criminals by the courts was responsible for such acts such as shooting a political candidate.

Richard Arnold of Texarkana, candidate for 4th District congressman, said that "the senseless act of violence directed against Gov. Wallace should cause all Americans not only to condemn the act but also to emphasize those institutions in our country that brings us together as opposed to those ideas that divide us."

Arnold said foremost among those institutions of unity was the law.

Mack Harbour, a Democratic candidate for governor, said he joined "all sensible Americans in condemning the shooting of Gov. Wallace regardless of the political beliefs of any candidate."

State Sen. Q. Byrum Hurst of Hot Springs, another candidate for governor, said the shooting indicates that it has become a "danger for good men to offer themselves for leadership in high public office."

"This tragedy may be the forewarning of other attempts to completely destroy our Democratic process of free elections," Hurst said.

Guy W. Hatfield of Rogers, Democratic candidate for Congress in the 3rd District, said, "It is indeed unfortunate that a man cannot make the effort to serve his country without being shot." He said he was "dismayed and frightened" by the incident.

Walter Carruth of Lexa, chairman of the American party in Arkansas, said the shooting probably was more in anger than anything else. He said the shooting indicates that "no longer do you have free expression in your nation."

The committee, formed by the Legislative Council, is composed of members of the legislature's Joint Budget Committee, plus state Sen. Knox Nelson of Pine Bluff and House Speaker Ray S. Smith Jr. of Hot Springs.

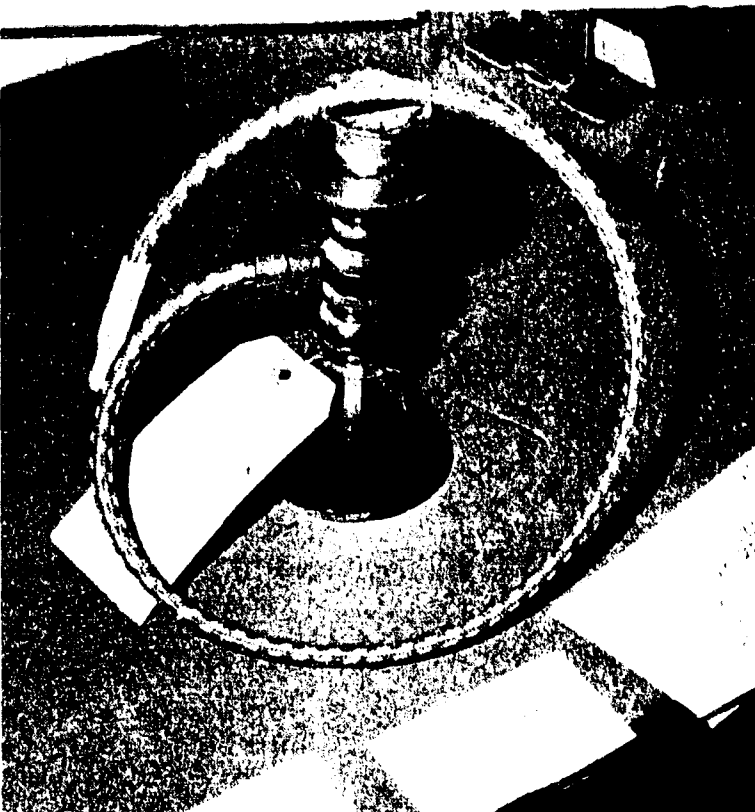

The committee wants to obtain the views of state Auditor Jimmie Jones, state Treasurer Nancy Hall, representatives of the state Department of Finance and Administration, and others.

Under consideration by the committee is a proposal to transfer from the director of the Department of Finance and Administration to the state treasurer the authority for distributing general revenues.

The responsibility for keeping fund records also would be transferred to the treasurer's office.

The committee agreed also to discuss the degree to which the governor or department heads might be allowed to shift funds within agencies of the 13 principal departments.

Hope Youth Charged

Don Garland, 19, of Hope was tried and found guilty on a marijuana possession charge in Municipal Court today.

The youth had in his possession a water pipe, wine, and marijuana when City Police Officer's Stovall and McCulley arrested him late Friday.

Garland explained he smoked marijuana through the water pipe filled with wine.

This wine-marijuana combination causes the user to have an elated or "high" feeling.

He said he has smoked marijuana in this fashion for the past six to nine months.

Garland was fined $100 and given a six months suspended sentence.

In other charges he was fined $10 for possessing wine, and $10 for a license violation.

Nation Is Shocked by Shooting

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Leaders across the political spectrum have reacted with shock, outrage and dismay at the shooting of Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace and deplored the trend of political violence in the nation.

Many officials recalled the assassinations of President John F. Kennedy, Martin Luther King Jr. and Sen. Robert F. Kennedy upon learning of the shooting at a Laurel, Md., shopping center on Monday.

Sens. George McGovern and Hubert H. Humphrey, the leading contenders for the Democratic presidential nomination that Wallace was seeking, canceled their scheduled campaign appearances.

President Nixon called Mrs. Wallace at her husband's bedside to offer his hope and prayers for the wounded candidate's recovery.

He called the shooting a "senseless and tragic incident" and said the nation has suffered "more than enough already from the intrusion of violence into its political process."

McGovern said, "We can only hope and pray for the speedy recovery of Gov. Wallace and we can only say a prayer for our country."

Jury Selection Continues

MCGEEHEE, Ark. (AP) — Jury selection was expected to continue here today for the first-degree murder trial of Tommy W. Blankenship, 28, of McGeehee.

Four jurors were seated Monday.

Blankenship is charged in the July 1, 1970, beating death of his pregnant wife, Sandra, 24. Blankenship was tried last year in the case but the trial ended in a hung jury.

Oil Supply Line Cut by U.S. Bombers

SAIGON (AP) — American fighter-bombers wrecked North Vietnam's air defense headquarters on the southern edge of Hanoi and cut the main pipeline feeding tanks and supply trucks on the northern front in South Vietnam, the U.S. Command announced today.

Intelligence reports have said Russian technicians and advisers were known to be working in the headquarters, but there was no immediate comment on this from the command.

Long Ride to the Hospital

By JULES LOH Associated Press Writer

SILVER SPRING, Md. (AP) — The ride to the hospital seemed interminably long to Gov. George C. Wallace.

"How much longer?" he asked several times during the 15-minute trip. "I hope they give me a shot of something soon."

It was a trip the provocative campaigner was mentally prepared to make. "I suppose some day somebody might throw something at me other than a rotten egg," Wallace once remarked during his 1968 campaign for the presidency.

Did he worry much about being shot?

"It's not something you let worry you," he said at that time. "But I'm fully aware of the possibility I'm runned off it every time I step behind that lectern." The lectern is a three-sided, bulletproof, steel barricade which takes two men to set in place.

Wallace used it in three campaigns the last eight years and spoke from behind it Monday at nearby Laurel—just before he mingled in the crowd and was shot.

At his side and also wounded was Capt. E. C. Dothard of the Alabama state police, a taciturn man who has described his feelings for the governor simply: "I love that little man."

At rallies across the country the past eight years, burly Capt. Dothard has fended off blows from picket signs and many times has stepped in front of Wallace amid barrages of rotten eggs, rocks and bottles, always without a word.

Monday, Dothard, who suffered a flesh wound in his right side, wordlessly held up his forefinger and thumb in an okay sign when he was helped into the ambulance alongside the governor.

Wallace returned the sign and winked at Dothard, who was released from a hospital Monday night.

Wallace was leaving the rally, in a supermarket parking lot, when the man accused of shooting him called him back, according to Emmett W. Eaton, a campaign aide.

"Hey, George, ain't you going to shake my hand?" Eaton said the man called out.

"George turned and walked toward him and that's when he was shot," Eaton said.

Eaton said he rushed to the fallen Wallace, who was lying on his back, and began unbuttoning his shirt.

Wallace Paralyzed From Waist Down; Name Marches on

On Eve of Expected Win in Maryland

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF AP Political Writer

Gov. George C. Wallace, shot and critically wounded on the eve of what looms as his biggest 1972 political triumph, is favored to sweep Democratic presidential primaries today in Michigan and Maryland, possibly boosted by a substantial sympathy vote.

Michigan will divide 132 delegates to the Democratic National Convention proportionately according to the presidential preference voting. In Maryland, 53 votes will be decided on the basis of statewide and congressional district results.

Even before a gunman shot Wallace as he campaigned Monday in the Washington suburb of Laurel, Md. he had been favored to win in both states, and after the shooting an aide said the governor would continue his drive for the presidency.

His top rivals are Sens. George McGovern and Hubert H. Humphrey, considered the leading candidates for the Democratic presidential nomination.

The incident may create "a large sentiment to vote for Wallace," president Tom Turner of the Metropolitan Detroit AFL-CIO, a Humphrey backer, predicted.

McGovern and Humphrey stopped active presidential campaigning, halted television and radio commercials and returned to Washington.

A Wallace television appeal went on as scheduled in Michigan, however, and a Wallace campaign worker in the Detroit suburb of Lincoln Park said, "Nothing's changed. We're still campaigning, and we're still going to carry Michigan."

Polls were scheduled to open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. EDT in Maryland, where only Democrats can cast votes in the Democratic primary.

In Michigan, which is holding its first presidential primary, polls were to open from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. EDT. Voters could decide in the booth whether to vote in the Democratic or Republican primaries.

In both states, President Nixon was expected to be an easy winner in the GOP primaries.

Votes Option On Contract

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Parks and Tourism Commission voted Monday to exercise an option for the managerial contract of the Folk Cultural Center in Mountain View.

The action is subject to approval of the Ozark Folk Cultural Center Commission and the Economic Development Administration.

The commission agreed to pay $110,000 for a 10-year lease with an additional 30-year option. Officials said they hoped the center would be completed by the end of the year.

Highway Death

DERMOTT, Ark. (AP) — Arthur R. Fulgham, 62, of Hamburg was killed Monday in a car-truck collision about two miles south of here on U. S. 165, State Police said.

Officers said Bernice Barrett, 38, of Hamburg, driver of the pickup truck in which Fulgham was riding, was injured.

Kenneth L. Rice of Montrose, driver of the other vehicle, apparently was not injured.

Nudge in Ribs Detects Gun

By LEE BYRD Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) —

You're at a political rally and a friendly young man sidles up and gives you a slight, painless nudge in the ribs. He is smiling and the gesture seems to say "Hi, how are ya?" But what he really wanted to know is whether you've got a gun.

It's a little trick often employed by the Secret Service.

And if it had been used on the right man Monday, George C. Wallace likely would have been spared the bullets which felled him on a Laurel, Md., parking lot.

Yet who would expect the Secret Service or local police to spot every potential assailant in a crowd?

Not George Wallace, who took the step of adding Alabama state troopers to the corps of federal men who followed him and still felt "fully aware of the possibility" he would be shot.

And having more agents, said Asst. Treasury Secretary Eugene T. Rossides, "would have made absolutely no difference in a situation like this."

At best, the business of candidate protection is one of reducing the risks. But they never are eliminated. Not as long as politicians insist on demonstrating their popularity in hand-shaking tours and hoopla rallies. Not as long as just a few

His Protest Movement Unsilenced

By WALTER R. MEARS AP Political Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gov.

George C. Wallace has played upon a chord of political protest that won't be silenced by the bullets that for the present have stilled his presidential campaign.

It is a campaign that seemed destined to reach its high point today, with the Alabama governor favored to win the Democratic primary elections in Maryland and Michigan.

But Wallace could prove more formidable in the weeks ahead from a hospital bed, a martyr to his political cause, than as an active campaigner trying to become a Democratic power broker.

In Maryland and Michigan, Wallace is sure to enlarge on the bloc of presidential-nominatee votes that now rank him third in the field. Wallace has 210 votes. Sen. George McGovern leads with 358 first-ballot commitments, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey has 241½.

It appears certain that somehow the 1972 Wallace movement is going to be continued even with the candidate himself out of action—that almost surely the effort will be made to hold his delegates in a force that will have clout in the divided Democratic convention.

There is no obvious stand-in or campaign successor to Wallace. His was essentially a one-man show. There were about 1,000 people on hand at Laurel, Md. when Wallace was gunned down Monday. No other Democrat can turn out that kind of crowd for a weekday political rally.

NEW YORK (AP) — It came as a surprise when Gov. George C. Wallace stepped down from his campaign platform and began shaking hands with supporters, says a Columbia Broadcasting System cameraman who filmed the shooting.

"They said he was going to leave," said Laurens Pierce, but instead, the Alabama gov-

Out of Danger After 5 Hours of Surgery

—Old FBI Trick

SILVER SPRING, Md. (AP) — George C. Wallace, shot down at an election-eve rally, lay gravely wounded and partially paralyzed today on what was to have been the brightest day of his presidential campaign.

The Alabama governor was hit several times by a gunman who pushed a pistol through a shopping-center crowd at Laurel, Md., Monday afternoon and fired point blank. A man identified by police as Arthur Herman Bremer, 21, of Milwaukee, was wrestled to the ground by members of the crowd and arrested immediately.

After five hours of surgery, police and hospital spokesmen said Wallace's life was no longer in danger, but some paralysis was reported. One physician said the outlook for full recovery was not good. The governor's press secretary quoted doctors as saying the paralysis may be temporary, "but we will know more about this in the next 48 hours." He said Wallace will continue his campaign.

Meanwhile, voters in Maryland and Michigan were balloting, today in primaries which Wallace had been favored to win in a double sweep that would have been the high point of his campaign for the Democratic presidential nomination.

"I feel very optimistic about him," Wallace's wife, Cornelia, said after the surgery in Holy Cross Hospital. "As you know, his nature, he didn't earn the title of the 'Fighting Little Judge' for nothing, and I expect him to continue in the same vein."

Doctors said Wallace, 52, was hit by five bullets, two of which caused serious wounds. A spokesman said one was removed, but another near the spine and blamed for paralysis of the lower extremities was left in place for the time being.

"I am very happy and I feel very good that he is alive," Mrs. Wallace said, "that he has a sound heart and a sound brain and all his vital organs are solid. I couldn't thank God more."

See 'LONER' WHO Shot Wallace Kept a File

By TIMOTHY L. CURRAN Associated Press Writer

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) —

Arthur H. Bremer, the onetime photography student charged with shooting Democratic presidential candidate George C. Wallace, is described as a quiet but confident loner.

The picture drawn by relatives, friends and acquaintances of the man who is accused of gunning down Wallace and three others at a Maryland shopping center Monday is that of a youth who kept his opinions to himself, developed few friendships and was something of a puzzle even to his family.

Bremer, 21, is being held in lieu of $200,000 bond in Maryland, under federal charges of ernor took off his jacket and began walking down a line of supporters who had turned out for his rally Monday in Laurel, Md.

"I couldn't get a good view of him in the restricted press area, so I violated the restriction area and got over into the security area," said Pierce.

"I was filming directly behind him when about four or five shots broke out," the veteran cameraman told CBS correspondent Roger Mudd on a special report Monday night entitled "The Shooting of Gov. George Wallace."

The film showed a man reaching between two persons in the crowd and pointing a gun at Wallace. It showed Wallace knocked down, lying on the ground alone, then hovered over by his wife Cornelia. It also showed a struggle as near-by witnesses wrestled the assailant to the ground.

"I was rolling at the time the shots began to ... were fired. A recognition of a pistol shot at that sort of thing—of course, we're always on the alert for any emergency," Pierce said.

"But I continued to roll, and I thought momentarily it was firecrackers, and then perhaps the third shot I could see the gun."

Connally Resigns Post As Treasury Secretary

WASHINGTON (AP) President Nixon made a surprise personal announcement today that Secretary of the Treasury John B. Connally "a tower of strength for the President"—is resigning.

Nixon told newsmen at the White House that he will nominate George P. Shultz, former secretary of Labor and currently director of the Office of Management and Budget, to succeed Connally.

To take over from Shultz at OMB, Nixon will name the agency's deputy director, Caspar Weinberger.

Connally said politics didn't figure in his decision to leave the Cabinet after 18 months.

Asked what role he might play in the fall election campaign, he replied, "I don't know."

He has been the only Democrat in President Nixon's Cabinet.

in this country where a public figure can't speak out on the issues of the day and seek the presidency without being shot, then I tremble for the future of our nation," he said.

Humphrey, who was campaigning in Maryland when he learned of the shooting, rushed to the hospital and spent more than an hour with Wallace's wife while the governor was in surgery.

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, brother of John and Robert said, "My heart and prayers go out to Gov. Wallace and to members of his grief-stricken family. Once again, democracy in America has been scarred by senseless and unforgivable violence. I am saddened beyond measure that tragedy has again stained and darkened the process we use to select our political leaders."

On the steps of the Alabama Capitol in Montgomery, a crowd estimated at 500 gathered Monday night for a prayer vigil for Wallace. Some cried openly through the 45-minute service.

In Georgia, the Rev. Andrew Young, a prominent black civil rights leader and a former aide to the late Martin Luther King Jr., said, "It's terrible that the politics of assassination is not over."

"Perpetrators of violence never win and they always end up helping the cause they attack," he said.

Thornton In Election Promises

LAKE VILLAGE, Ark. (AP) — Ray Thornton, attorney general and candidate for Congress in the 4th District, said Monday night that many federal programs were vital and were being operated in an efficient manner, but he said others were wasteful and unnecessary.

"It is time to take a hard look at these agencies and eliminate those that are no longer needed," Thornton said in a speech here.

He said the people were tired of seeing their tax dollars spent for "duplicating and wasteful government agencies."

"They are tired of seeing a major portion of their hard-earned money going to taxes, only to be wasted by some bureaucrats in federal government," he said.

He said if elected he would work for efficient, economic methods at all levels of government.

men are willing to commit a violent act, whether it is upon a Dr. Martin Luther King or a George Corley Wallace.

The late Robert F. Kennedy told his closest aides that if a man wanted to kill him, he'd probably find a way to do it, no matter what. Meanwhile, said Kennedy, a man has to take a man's chances.

But does he? In an era when newspapers, television and radio can reach virtually every voting man and woman in the nation, is it really necessary to charge through a mob of mere hundreds and thereby subject the will of the majority to the whim of a maniac?

Or should a man running for the highest office in the land forego such gallantry, like the general who remains at the rear line, as a matter of national interest?

The notion that massive face-to-face contact is necessary is something of an American exclusive among democracies. For, America leads the world in the number of lethal weapons among its citizens and the ease by which they can be produced. Remember the great gun debate after RFK was shot?

Foster Hopes Third Time Is A Charm

By BILL SIMMONS

Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Foster Johnson, 57, of Little Rock hopes the third time is the charm.

His race for the Democratic nomination for the U.S. Senate this year is his third bid for the Senate. He never has held public office and odds are that after the May 30 primary that won't be changed.

Johnson ran in 1966 against Sen. John L. McClellan and in 1968 against Sen. J. W. Fulbright. McClellan is the foe again this year in a contest that also includes Rep. David Pryor, D-Ark., and Ted Boswell, who flashed political appeal in the 1968 gubernatorial campaign.

Despite unpromising prospects, Johnson has been one of McClellan's most frequent critics in the new race, especially of the use to which McClellan has put his 30-year Senate seniority.

"Since he has so much seniority power that he talks about, why hasn't he done something about the high interest rates that homeowners and people who have to borrow money are paying to the banks," Johnson said.

Since 1952, Johnson said, American have paid $497.2 billion in "excessive" interest, including $103.8 billion on the federal debt.

The Arkansas River navigation project, named the McClellan-Kerr navigation system, has been credited largely to McClellan's work, but Johnson attributes most of the credit to the late Sen. Robert S. Kerr, D-Okla.

The image of the river project as McClellan's is due in part, Johnson said, to the fact that McClellan "takes credit for everything the government spends money for in the whole state."

past week said:

"The North Vietnamese Air Defense Headquarters at Bach Mai air field, south of Hanoi, was struck by U.S. Air Force F4s, destroying several structures."

Bach Mai is three miles south of Hanoi.

The command also disclosed that air strikes against North Vietnam have been stepped up to an average of 250 per day in the campaign ordered by President Nixon a week ago to choke off supply routes to the south.

The command had announced earlier that both the northwest and northeast rail lines between Hanoi and China had been cut, and the 7th Air Force reported Sunday that its bombers had destroyed the "Dragon's Jaw" bridge at Thanh Hoa, 80 miles south of Hanoi, a key link in North Vietnam's supply network.

But spokesmen said that the effects of the aerial campaign on the enemy offensive in the south would not be known for at least 30 days. They estimated that the North Vietnamese had a month's supply of fuel close at hand for their tanks and vehicles in the south.

Fighting in the 48-day-old North Vietnamese offensive slowed down, but the reason was not immediately clear. One U.S. military source said the enemy may have pulled back to consolidate his forces, but "even the most ardent air power advocate would not attribute this lull to the bombing."

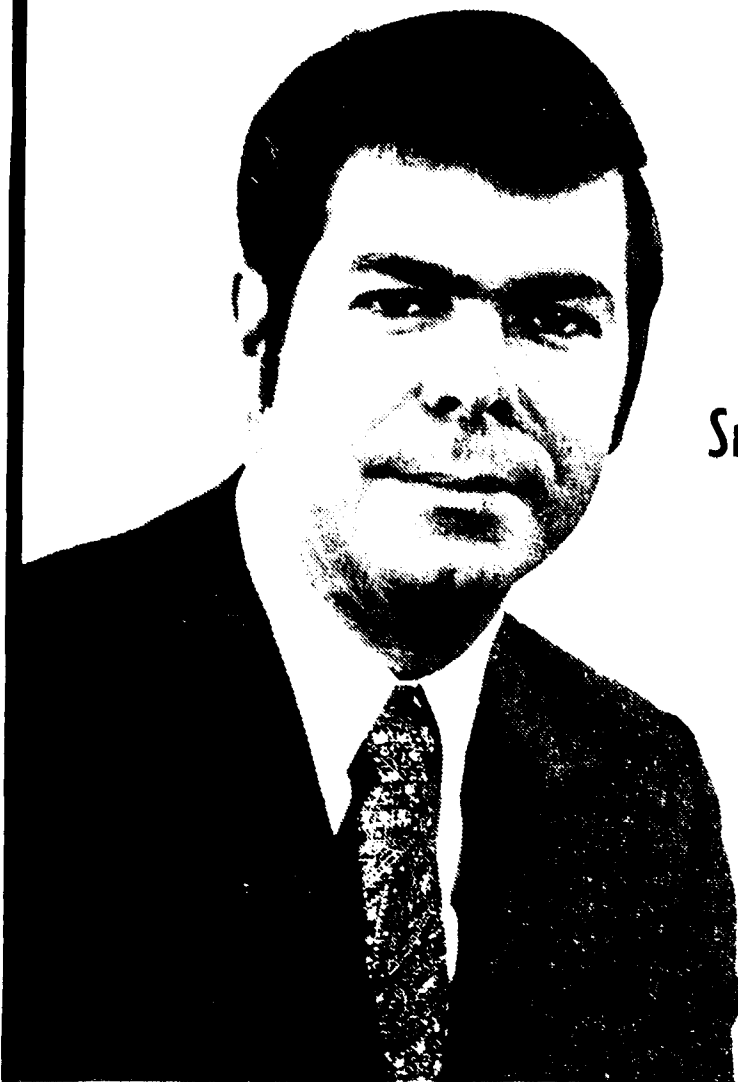

South Vietnamese forces continued to push out from Hue to widen their defenses and keep the North Vietnamese from getting close enough for an all-out attack on the old imperial capital.

Reporting on the air war against the North, a U.S. communique said: "All pumping stations along the main Communist pipeline running down the southern panhandle of North Vietnam into the demilitarized zone were destroyed."

"This effectively cuts the line which previously could carry 1,130 metric tons of fuel per day...."

Helen and Sue Bottel The Generation Gap

Is All His Time Her Time?

DEAR HELEN AND SUE:

I've been going steadily with Dave for over two years. Until recently, we rarely spent a day without seeing each other and we went to all social gatherings together. But there's a change and I'm feeling miserable, lonely, rejected and ignored, though Dave swears he still loves me.

See, we used to double with Dave's best friend Joe and his date, but they broke up. So Dave and I still see Joe a lot—so much so that I hardly ever am alone with my boy friend any more. I didn't mind at first, but Dave calls Joe now before he calls me. He asks Joe what HE wants to do, and then tells me where we're going.

Because I've spent all my time with Dave, I have no close friends to invite, so I'm little tagalong, a sort of third leg.

Today was the ultimate. Dave has always asked me what I want to do on Sunday afternoon—and that's the one time he reserves for just us two. But this morning he called and said he was on his way to Joe's house to play tennis, and "See ya tomorrow."

Before this Joe business I was not only Dave's girl friend, but his best friend. Now I can't even talk to him, and he gets mad because of my moodiness. How can I get Dave back to our once-perfect relationship?—X-BEST FRIEND

DEAR X:

By letting go a little! You've been making Dave your whole life and now you refuse to share him. Don't close yourself off from others because all you want is your boy friend. He's not hanging on to YOU as "everything" and you should be thankful, for that would be too much of a burden.

Find a good girl friend and go around with her when the guys get together. Get interested in many things—some of which don't include Dave. I'll bet you'll even begin to enjoy this new freedom—after a while.—SUE

DEAR X:

Besides, your new girl friend may jolt Joe out of his "man's world." Perhaps you'll be double-dating again before long.—HELEN

NOTE FROM SUE: That's my little ol' matchmaker Mom speaking.—S.

LAST WORD FROM HELEN:

Okay, kid, but a girl sometimes must be sneaky to discourage an overly good buddy who might otherwise break up her romance. I agree that "X" shouldn't make Dave her whole life, but I also think Joe is becoming a bit much. Best way to ease him off is: get him a girl friend. Next best way: play up to Joe until Dave decides the situation needs a little separation.—HELEN

DEAR RAP:

What do you think of a mother who suspects you of being "queer"? My best friend just happens to also be female. We enjoy playing soft ball as we're both athletic. But we like guys, too. I was always a tomboy. But I'm sure as heck not a boy. Yet Mom is trying to break up a good friendship with "double-meaning" cuts and half-asked questions that make me feel ugly. Nothing really comes out in the open, but it's there and I'm beginning to wonder if I look like someone with a problem.—ABSOLUTELY NORMAL

DEAR A.N.:

Your mother is the one with the problem! She needs to talk out this fear of abnormality—and you could help by making her face it. Next time she gives you a "queer" look, sit her down and DISCUSS. Tell her the stereotype female and male roles aren't being played any more (especially since women's lib), that athletic girls are no more "strange" than boys who like to cook—and almost every person has a best friend of the same sex. ...And it wouldn't hurt to come home from school and talk a little about guys.—SUE

Sometimes a declarer doesn't know which opponent holds the gun. In that case he has to guess. The better players tend to make the right guess a surprisingly large percentage of the time.

If you haven't looked at the East-West cards as yet, cover them up and decide how to play the three no-trump contract. East plays the king of spades at trick one and it is up to you to decide whether to duck or win that first spade trick. If you duck, spades will be continued and you will have to take the third lead.

In either event you will have to knock out the ace of clubs. Now look at the East-West hands. West holds the club ace and if you won the first spade the birds will sing for you and you will make at least three no-trump. If you held up, the birds may still sing but they will sing "Down one, down one."

When this hand was played in a team match some 40 years ago the late Raymond Balfe took the first spade. The other South player ducked and the swing decided the match.

Was Raymond's guess pure luck? No, it wasn't! Raymond decided that West

Ark. Medical Society Supports MECO

The Arkansas Medical Society is asking its component county medical societies to actively support the Medical Education and Community Orientation (MECO) Program of the Arkansas Chapter of the Student American Medical Association.

The purpose of the MECO program is to provide summer employment for medical students in hospitals across the State. It helps the student while providing the hospital with additional manpower. The long range goal of the program is to get the medical students to return to the communities where they participated in the MECO program.

Last summer, when the program was first begun, 600 medical students worked in 300 hospitals in 18 states. The results of the summer program indicated that seventy percent of the students would consider returning to their MECO community to practice in the future.

The participating hospitals are asked to provide opportunities for the student to observe and participate in any learning situation available, aside from the duties of the job assigned to him. The hospital is responsible for a $25 registration fee for each student and is asked to pay the student a minimum of $50 a week, plus room and board.

The Student AMA sees this program as a key to eliminating the shortage of physicians in many areas of the State. They believe it has great potential in allowing medical students to see medicine practiced in an area away from the Medical Center. The program has the endorsement of the Medical School.

might well have led a short suit unless he had a quick entry for his own suit and the only quick re-entry held by either East or West was the ace of clubs. Hence the odds were that West held that key card.

Camp for Handicapped Children

A special one-week camp for medically or physically handicapped children will be held this summer at Aldersgate Camp near Little Rock.

Sponsored by the Arkansas Chapter and the Central Arkansas Pediatric Society, the camp will be held the week of July 3.

Applications for the camp are being sought throughout Arkansas from campers with illnesses such as cystic fibrosis, asthma, sickle cell disease, diabetes, kidney problems, heart disease and other illnesses.

According to camp officials, applications are accepted on a first come-first served basis with only a limited number of applications available.

Cost of the camp will be $30 with a limited number of scholarships available for those children who cannot afford to pay.

Age range for campers is 9-16 years and applications from brothers, sisters and friends without specific medical problems are encouraged.

Applications or further information about the camp should be obtained from Aldersgate Camp, 2000 Aldersgate Road, Little Rock.

In heraldry, the color green symbolizes youth and hope.

SSC in Tennis Semifinals

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Southern State College and State College of Arkansas shared a slim lead today as the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference tennis tournament moved into semifinals and finals.

SCA and Southern each won seven singles matches and two doubles matches for nine points in Monday's competition.

Hendrix College and Henderson State College were tied for third with eight points apiece. Next were Arkansas Tech with two points, Ouachita Baptist University, College of the Ozarks and Harding College with one point each.

Nets Rally for Victory

By HAL BOCK

Associated Press Sports Writer UNIONDALE, N.Y. (AP) — The numbers were all bad as Coach Lou Carnesecca talked to his New York Nets at half-time of Monday night's fourth game of the American Basketball Association championship playoff.

His club was down by five points, and three players—Rick Barry, Tom Washington and John Baum—were in foul trouble with three personals apiece.

"We were in trouble," decided Carnesecca, "but then, I think we were born in trouble."

The troubled Nets, driven by their demonstrative coach, rallied for a 110-105 victory that tied the best-of-7 series at two games apiece. Game five is in Indiana Thursday night, with the teams returning to New York for a sixth game Saturday afternoon.

What did Carnesecca tell the Nets at the intermission that turned this game around?

"I said," the coach confessed, "For heaven's sake, box out."

That's basketball lingo for getting tough underneath, and that's what the Nets did. They played a rugged defense that turned the game around in the second half. They boxed out, grabbing rebounds that had escaped them in the opening 24 minutes.

Billy Paultz, the 6-foot-11 center, was the big man with 30 points and 18 rebounds. Rick Barry added 28 points. Together, they made 24 of 36 shots from the field and eventually, they simply wore Indiana down.

"Whenever I judge how I played in a game, I look at what the man I was guarding did," said Barry. On the matchups, he and Paultz came way out ahead. Barry's man, Roger Brown, managed only 19 points, while Mel Daniels, who played against Paultz, had 15.

Spring Hill Takes 3-2 Victory

Saturday night at Legion Field Springhill, La. took a 3-2 Southern Arkansas Baseball League Opening victory from the Hope Angels. The winning pitcher, Ronnie Melton, gave up 3 hits with 13 strike outs, the loser, Larry Walker, gave 5 hits with 9 strike outs. The Angels will host Atlanta, Texas Saturday night, May 20, at 8 p.m. at Legion Field.

First Woman Mechanic At Indianapolis

By DALE BURGESS

Associated Press Sports Writer INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Wanda McBride Knepper didn't know a torque wrench from a screwdriver until she was 18 years old.

Now she is the first authentic woman race car mechanic permitted to work in the Indianapolis Motor Speedway garages.

"I was in high school at Arnold, Missouri," she recalled, "when some friends asked me if I wanted to meet a midget driver who had just got back from Korea."

"I expected to meet a midget man. I didn't know there was such a thing as auto racing."

So she met Arnie Knepper of Belleville, Ill., who had grown up in racing with his father, Roy. She found his stature and occupation satisfactory and married him two years later.

"I've worked on race cars for 17 years," Mrs. Knepper said. "Arnie started me off like he would anybody else—washing engine parts in kerosene. Then I graduated to ordering parts and checking the shipments, then to tearing down engines, and then to helping put them back together."

"I did most of the body work on the car Arnie hopes to drive in the 500-mile race. It's a 1968 Eagle that has been driven by Mark Donohue. Ronnie Buck-

Orioles Edge Tigers 3-2

By HERSHEL NISSENSEN

Associated Press Sports Writer The team to beat in the American League East is (a) the Baltimore Orioles, (b) the Detroit Tigers.

"They have to beat us," said Earl Weaver, the Baltimore manager, after the Orioles edged the Tigers 3-2 Monday night and snapped a four-game losing streak.

"He's got that a little mixed up, doesn't he? They're behind us," replied Billy Martin, the Detroit skipper.

That brilliant repartee may bring a chuckle or two from Ken Aspromonte, manager of the Cleveland Indians, who were idle Monday but lead the division by one game over the Tigers and 2 1/2 over the Orioles.

Elsewhere, the Chicago White Sox nipped Minnesota 4-3, Oakland downed California 2-1 and Kansas City shaded Texas 5-4. Milwaukee, Boston and the New York Yankees, along with the Indians, were not scheduled.

Baltimore's Jim Palmer not only hurled a four-hitter to beat the Tigers in Detroit for the first time in his career, but slammed his first major league triple in the seventh inning and scored the winning run on Don Buford's bloop single.

Palmer pitched scoreless ball after being tagged for solo home runs by Gates Brown in the first inning and Willie Horton in the second. The Orioles tied the score in the second on Mark Belanger's run-scoring single and in the third on Merv Rettenmund's homer.

The race in the AL West also tightened up as the Twins saw their lead shrink to 1 1/2 games over the A's and 2 1/2 over the White Sox.

The White Sox kayoed Minnesota's Jim Perry inside of two innings and held on for their 12th victory in 13 home games as opposed to 2-8 on the road. Wilbur Wood notched his six triumph, with last-out help from Terry Forster.

Harmon Killebrew homered for the Twins in the ninth.

Blue Moon Odom fired a two-hitter and Angel Mangual homered as the A's edged the Angels. The right-hander, fighting his way back from arm problems and apparently a regular starter now that Denny McLain has been sent to the minors, yielded only a third-inning single to Sandy Alomar and Bob Oliver's run-scoring double in the fifth.

Joe Rudi singled home an Oakland run in the first inning and Mangual homered in the fourth off loser Nolan Ryan, who left the game in the same inning with a recurring groin injury. The Angels also lost Ken Berry, the AL's leading hitter, with a concussion and gash over his right eye when he collided on the basepaths with Oakland second baseman Larry Brown.

'Winning Is What Its All About'

By BRUCE LOWITT

Associated Press Sports Writer "I've been pitching good. It's just that I haven't been winning," Bob Gibson understated. "And winning is what it's all about."

Gibson, the St. Louis Cardinals' flame-throwing right-hander, has been getting most of the heat this season. He has yet to record his first victory of the season to counteract the five defeats he's suffered.

Most of the time it's been just one or two pitches that have made the difference. On Monday night it was one he threw to Pittsburgh's Roberto Clemente, who walloped it over the right field fence for a three-run homer and the Pirates' 4-1 victory.

In other National League action, Philadelphia blanked the Chicago Cubs 4-0, Houston bombed Atlanta 8-2, the New York Mets defeated Montreal 5-3 and Los Angeles nipped San Diego 2-1.

"Every time I made a good pitch it seems I jammed somebody and they got a hit," said Gibson, who gave up 11 of them in his third complete game of the season.

"The pitch I threw to Clemente on the home run was a fast ball. I didn't think it was gone—but it sure as hell was."

Dock Ellis scattered five hits for his fourth victory. Woodie Fryman tossed a six-hitter for the Phillies and got some long-ball help from Mike Anderson and Willie Montanez, who hit home runs for a 2-0 lead, before Fryman singled in two runs of his own to down the Cubs.

Anderson, a rookie who clouted 36 homers in the Pacific Coast League, opened up against Ferguson Jenkins in the fifth inning for the only run Philadelphia needed.

In the seventh, Montanez unloaded. "I hit it good," he beamed. "I didn't even move from the plate. I wanted to see it go out."

The Astros, remaining within a game of the first-place Dodgers in the National League West, bunched three infield hits, a bases-loaded walk by Roger Metzger and second baseman Felix Millan's throwing error into a three-run third inning that carried them past Atlanta.

Jim Fregosi's three-run homer broke an eighth inning tie with Montreal and powered the Mets, first by three games in the East, to their fourth victory in a row and 17th in 22 games. Tommie Agee also homered for the Mets and Jon Matlack, with ninth-inning relief help, picked up his fourth victory without a defeat.

Willie Davis' double and walks to Manny Mota and Billy Grabarkewitz loaded the bases for the Dodgers in the ninth inning against the Padres and pinch-hitter Chris Cannizzaro broke a 1-1 tie with a line single off Enzo Hernandez' glove at shortstop.

Hace 'Fit and Ready To Run' in Derby

BALTIMORE (AP) — No Le

Hace, one of only three horses given a serious chance of beating Kentucky Derby winner Riva Ridge in Saturday's Preakness Stakes, was scheduled to arrive at Pimlico Race Course today in preparation for the 97th running of the $150,000-added classic.

"He's fit and ready to run," trainer Homer Pardue said in an interview Monday following a workout at Belmont Park in which the Derby runnerup worked six furlongs in 1:15 2-5.

The Preakness field firmed up at nine Monday when trainer Bill Raymond named Freetex a definite starter.

Raymond, who was undecided about Freetex after his sixth-place finish in the Kentucky Derby, said he reached his decision after the colt worked five-eighths of a mile in 1:00 4-5 last Saturday.

"He turned in such good work, I decided to give him a chance," Raymond said by telephone from New York.

Both Freetex and Eager Exchange are scheduled to be shipped to Pimlico from New York either Wednesday or Thursday. The other six entries for the 1 3/16-mile race, which will gross $189,800 if all nine start, already are on the grounds.

Earl Hart, Pimlico's program oddsmaker, has installed the Meadow Stable entry of Riva Ridge and Upper Case as the 6-5 choice.

Key to the Mint, Paul Mellon's Rokeby Stable entry, was quoted at 2-1 following his impressive victory in Saturday's Preakness Prep. No Le Hace was pegged at 6-1 and Freetex at 12-1.

Bee Bee Bee, winner of the survivor Stakes at Pimlico earlier in the season, was quoted at 15-1, with Eager Exchange, Festive Mood and Hassi's Image, the 11th-place finisher in the Derby, all at 20-1.

Monday Little League Winners

In Little League play last night at K-Park Barry's won over Lion's by a score of 8 to 1 in the first game, and the second game was won by CBC beating James Mtr. Co. 9 to 8.

Paul Willis was the pitcher for Barry's. Lion's used Johnny Vicker's on the mound. Leading all hitters for the winners were Stan Harris and Barry Hogan collecting 3 singles and 1 double. Chris Cagle, Britt Henry, and Taylor Kin were the leading hitters for the losers getting 3 hits.

In the second game of the evening Aaron Sheppard and Vince Bishop were the pitchers for the CBC team, and Alan Moore, Bruce Hunt, Jay Huneycutt, and Steve Banks saw mound duty for James Mtr. Co. Hitters for the winners were Derrick Turner, James Washington, and Vince Bishop and got 1 hit a piece, and the best hitter for the losers was Jay Huneycutt. Tommy Bryant also went 2 for 3.

Tuesday night games will be Walker's Ref. vs Greening-Ellis at 6:30 p.m. and Hope Auto vs Sheriff's in the second game of the night.

Unser Makes Breathtaking Qualifying Run at Indy

By BLOYS BRITT

AP Auto Racing Writer INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — The railbirds brought out their alderules at Indianapolis Monday and took a second look at Bobby Unser's breathtaking 196.678 qualifying lap.

Among other things, they figured:

—Had the Albuquerque, N.M., driver gone 219.13 feet further in his elapsed time of 45.76 seconds, he'd have reduced his time to 45 seconds flat and his lap speed would have been 200 miles per hour.

—Putting it another way, 283.3 feet per second is 200 m.p.h. at the 2 1/2-mile Indianapolis Motor Speedway oval. Unser covered 289 feet each second he was under the clock.

—Or, as one of the seasoned observers put it, "Say the words '1,000-to-1' real quick and you've already used the time he needed to do 200. Or simply blink your eyelashes three times."

Unser, driving one of Dan Gurney's Olsonite Eagles, ripped off four laps at an astounding 196.940 m.p.h. to take a strangle-hold on the pole position for the May 27 Indianapolis 500-mile race.

It was, as still another sideline put it, "The greatest combination of driver, machine and sheer courage in the history of auto racing."

But while the Speedway crowd was still agog over a record-shattering performance Sunday that lifted the one-and-four-lap marks more than 17 m.p.h. over anything ever recorded at the ancient brickyard, work went on for the other drivers—particularly Mark

El Paso Dumps Travelers

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Six errors by three Arkansas players helped El Paso dump the Travelers 5-2 here Monday night in the opening game of a five-game series. The loss pushed Arkansas 4 1/2 games behind Memphis, leader of the East Division of the Texas League.

the day. Andretti put one of Parnelli Jones' radical new cars in the lineup at 187.617.

Donohue worked his Roger Penske McLaren up to 190.114 Monday. Revson also hovered near the 190 mark in a Team McLaren car, though he already has done over 191 in practice.

Twelve drivers made the 33-car lineup Sunday, averaging a sizzling 183.980 m.p.h. for the 48 miles they covered.

Unsung Amateur From Texas Shows Promise

By DENNE H. FREEMAN

Associated Press Sports Writer FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — The kid looked at his Tom Kite autograph and somebody asked who the golfer was.

"I don't know but he sure signs his name bigger than Lee Trevino," the lad answered.

Someday the unsung amateur from Texas' NCAA championship team may have a game bigger than Trevino's.

Kite plays in the shadow of NCAA champion Ben Crenshaw of the Longhorns, but oldtimers like Billy Maxwell will tell you Kite's game is as sound as they come.

"He's got every shot it takes to be great," said Maxwell after playing a round with Kite, a senior, at the Colonial National Invitational Golf Tournament.

Kite, who finished second in the U.S. Amateur in 1970, plans to turn professional this summer after the NCAA tournament. He must, of course, qualify at the Professional Golfers Association school in September at Kansas City and in October at Napa, Calif.

The 5-foot-9, 165-pound Kite said all of Crenshaw's publicity doesn't bother him.

"We have a rivalry and there's nobody I'd rather beat," Kite said. "We've been good for each other's game. We play every day. I've won some money from him and he has taken some from me. We're just about even."

"When you can stay with a player of Crenshaw's caliber then you become convinced you

Hope Sweeps Doubleheader At Little Rock

Sunday at Legion Field, the Hope Jr. American Legion swept a doubleheader from Little Rock by the scores of 9-2 and 7-1.

In the first game, the winning pitcher was Mike Downs. He gave up only 1 hit, struck out 11 and walked 1. Leading hitter was Downs with a single and double. Buddy Ingram and Jimmy Dale Fincher each had a double.

Lynn Norton was the winning pitcher in the second game, giving up only 1 hit, striking out 14 and walked 5. Buddy Ingram was the leading hitter with a double and single. Bubba Powers also doubled.

Next games for the Legion will be Saturday, 4:00 at Magnolia, and a Sunday doubleheader with Sheridan here.

Prosecution Winds Up the Davis Case

By EDITH M. LEDERER
Associated Press Writer
SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP) — The prosecution has ended its murder-kidnap-conspiracy case against Angela Davis with details of the black militant's love for convict-author George Jackson. The defense says it will ask today for her acquittal.

Prosecutor Albert Harris Jr. completed the state's case by reading jurors a heavily edited version of Miss Davis' love diary. In it, the former UCLA philosophy instructor talks of marriage vows and refers to herself as Jackson's "lifelong wife."

The trial now focuses on the defense—and defense attorney Leo A. Branton said the first order of business today would be to ask Superior Court Judge Richard E. Aronson for a directed verdict of acquittal on the ground of insufficient evidence.

The prosecution case took seven weeks and involved 96 witnesses and more than 200 pieces of evidence. In much of that time, Harris had attempted to read jurors the complete 18-page diary.

He said it was crucial to show that Miss Davis had uncontrolled passion and willingness to kill, if necessary, to free Jackson from San Quentin Prison.

New B&PW Club Officers

New officers are: L to R Miss Margie Vickers, Mrs. Mickey Becherer, Miss Opal Daniel, Mrs. Donna Smith, Miss Charlene Wiggins, and Mrs. Laveta Mouser.

In a candlelight ceremony on Thursday, May 11 at the Diamond, Miss Charlene Wiggins was installed as President of the Hope B & PW Club. Mrs. LaVeta Mouser conducted the ceremony for the slate of officers that included: 1st vice-president, Mrs. Donna Smith; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. Margaret Park; recording secretary, Mrs. Mickey Becherer; treasurer, Miss Opal Daniel; corresponding secretary, Miss Margie Vickers; parliamentarian, Mrs. Dee McMurrugh.

"May Days Are Pay Days" was the theme of the table decorations which had tiny May poles and arrangements of roses for the 28 members in attendance. For her final meeting as the presiding officer of the club, Mrs. Dee McMurrugh lighted a candle and asked for a moment of silent prayer for a recently deceased member, Mrs. Mary Andrews.

The club was reminded of the Nike Club initiation Thursday, May 18 at 6:30 p.m. in the Douglas Building, and they voted to send a girl to Girl Scout Camp. Mrs. Donna Smith directed a quiz about famous sayings of famous people, and Mrs. Martha Stephenson won the prize for making the most correct identifications.

A song to President Dee with words by Mrs. Evva Reynerson was sung with Mrs. Reynerson accompanying at the piano. A gift was presented to the retiring president before President Charlene Wiggins assumed her new duties.

Letters To The Editor

This is your newspaper. Write to it. Address letters to: Editor The Star, P.O. Box 648, Hope, Ark. 71801.

All letters must be signed, with address so you are identified to the newspaper staff, but if the character of the letter permits we will allow use of a pen-name in the publication, in which case you should add "Citizen," or some other word below your real name and address.

Pen-names are permitted when a letter deals only with issues. Direct attacks upon public officials, however, must bear the writer's name for publication.

N. ELM COMPLAINT
Editor The Star: What do you do when you have done all you can and still get nothing done? We, the people on the end of North Elm Street have a problem and we can not get anything done. Just take a drive down that street. When you come to the end of it just stop and take a look. It is a disgrace to have a mess like that in the city.

Now take a look to your left and take a look at the trees grown up near that railroad track. It was cut five years ago along the rail road track but nothing has been done to that lot on the end of the street for years.

Whose job is it to see that places like that are cleaned up in a town that is growing like Hope? It not only looks bad but we would like to raise a garden but last year and so far this year the rats have eaten up everything we have planted.

There are rats out there as large as a small cat. They are just everywhere. They run across the road down there and run across our gardens every time we go out there. I like Hope but I hate rats. Now I know that someone has the power to get that mess cleaned up and I would appreciate any help you can give us on this matter. The railroad says it is not their place to keep around the tracks out and the town says it is the railroad's job.

Living In A Small Town Has Advantages

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — "Sometimes I wish everybody lived in a small town instead of an ant swarm like this," said Jack, one of the genial countermen in a Manhattan drugstore luncheonette.

"Then I wouldn't have trouble like I did with Fred," he said, and then told this tale: "Fred's one of the nicest customers I got. Big job, but real friendly guy. Been drinking his coffee here for years. A month ago I mentioned to Fred that on the way home I'd dropped into a cocktail bar lounge on First Avenue the night before and seen him sitting in a corner having drinks with one of the pretty girls in his office."

"Don't wreck my reputation, Jack," he said. "It couldn't have been me. I do all my drinking at home."

"I kind of thought I had worried him, so when he came in the next day I whispered to him: 'Don't give it a second thought about me seeing you with that young dame over on First Avenue. I'd never tell anybody about it. I'm your pal.'"

"Thanks a lot," he said. "But I'm not the guy you saw. It must be a case of mistaken identity."

"Well, that could be," I told him. "I really recognized the girl, but I only saw the back of the guy's head."

"Overnight I got to thinking over the matter and realized I was wrong in at least one respect: When Fred came in the next day, I said:

"Maybe I can clear up that thing we were talking about. I was wrong about it being on First Avenue. It happened in a bar on Second Avenue. Does that stir anything in your memory?"

"Well, Fred really surprised me. He got all upset. He asked what in hell was the matter with me, and wanted to know why I was trying to start ugly rumors about him, and said he had never been in a bar with a single girl since he got married five years ago, and that if he ever did want to play tomcat it wouldn't be with any girl who worked with him in the same office. Then he got up and went out without leaving his usual dime tip."

"When Fred came in the next day and I tried to straighten the whole thing out with him, he went by me without saying a word and sat down two counters."

"He hasn't sat at my counter since. Every once in a while when he gets up to leave, he calls over and says, 'Well, who are you slicing up today, Jack?' Then he walks off before I can say anything I guess I've lost a friend."

"I still don't know for sure whether the guy I saw was Fred or not.

"Anyway, like I said, if we all lived in a small town I wouldn't have had this trouble with Fred. In a big city like New York there can be two dozen people who look exactly like you going around doing things you wouldn't be caught dead doing, but you wind up anyway getting the credit for doing them."

"In a small town nobody would look like Fred. In a small town nobody looks like nobody else."

Johnson Raps Bumpers, But Couldn't Run

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Jim Johnson of Conway, former Supreme Court justice and gubernatorial candidate, said Monday "unexpected and unforeseen events" kept him out of a race for governor again this year.

Johnson said he planned to run for the Democratic nomination for governor with the "active support" of former Gov. Orval E. Faubus, an alliance Johnson said would have formed "the most powerful political force in Arkansas."

"I learned of unexpected and unforeseen events which made it imperative that we forego a race this year in favor of a prior national commitment," Johnson said, not naming the events.

An unsuccessful Democratic gubernatorial candidate in 1966, Johnson made the remarks in a letter he said he mailed to 12,000 friends.

The letter upbraids Gov. Dale Bumpers, the Democratic incumbent seeking a second term, as an arrogant and inaccessible man. Johnson said persons who try to do business with the governor's office find their affairs being handled by "an arrogant hippie or a pushy woman."

Johnson said Bumpers' governmental credentials when he ran for governor two years ago were less than those possessed by each of his four Democratic opponents this year.

"Leaders with much less potential than these challengers have in the past knocked political home runs — it just might happen again," Johnson wrote. "With your help, we can make it happen or, at the very least, we can come so dang close that it will scare the daylight out of Bumpers and his whole gang."

Johnson said he had made extensive plans to run against Bumpers this year.

"After many years of sparring with former Gov. Orval Faubus, I concluded that both Faubus and I had done a pretty good job of gutting one another politically; that, inasmuch as we could both almost win an election in spite of the opposition of the other; that, if we ever got together politically, past election returns demonstrate conclusively that the combined friends of both of us would present the most powerful political force in Arkansas," Johnson wrote.

Mrs. Nixon said she and the President will be departing Saturday morning for Salzburg, Austria, the first stop on the four-country, two-week journey.

Asked if she would be disappointed if the trip were called off, she said, "Of course I would, because I think it's going to be good for the world."

She said she has been practicing some Russian words and reading briefing papers and is planning to visit a school, university and the famous Moscow subway.

Seek Support for Bumpers

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The president of the Arkansas Democratic Voters Association has circulated a letter urging the support of Gov. Dale Bumpers for re-election.

I. S. McClinton, who is black, said in the letter that more blacks were in state government today than at any time in the state history.

Focus Is On Desegregation And Busing

By JOE HALL
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate-House conferees, grappling with the $23-billion higher education bill, focus this week on desegregation and busing amendments which most believe are the key to the bill's survival.

After eight weeks of sessions, unsettled questions are said to be narrowed down to:

—Whether to accept stringent House antibusing riders, or milder Senate ones.

—Agreement on one version of two highly different versions of a section that would provide $1.5 billion for schools with desegregation problems.

—Deciding how general aid is to be divided among colleges and universities.

Moscow Trip on, Says Nixon's Wife

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon will be going to Moscow after all, his wife says.

"It's no secret. It's on," Mrs. Nixon said Monday.

It was the first firm word from the White House that the President's recent moves in Southeast Asia and the subsequent Russian opposition would block the Moscow summit meeting.

Mrs. Nixon said she and the President will be departing Saturday morning for Salzburg, Austria, the first stop on the four-country, two-week journey.

Contributions Totals Told

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Congressional candidate Jack Coleman of McGehee has announced that his campaign contributions so far total $14,161. Coleman, one of four Democrats running for Congress in the 4th District, said the largest contribution of $6,960 came out of his own pocket.

He said his only contribution from an out-of-state supporter was $1,000 from a doctor in Virginia who is a personal friend.

Price of Gold Hits Record

LONDON (AP) — The price of gold hit a record $54.50 an ounce today on the London free market, $1.05 more than Monday's closing figure of $53.45.

Dealers reported demand strong and the market active. But they could not pin the rise to any particular international development.

Some brokers said the rise could have been triggered by published predictions that the free market price of gold could hit $85 an ounce by 1980.

Art Center Presents Readings

The Arkansas Arts Center will present "Readings From Shakespeare" at St. Mark's Episcopal Church on Thursday, May 18, 1972, at 7:30 p.m.

Four actors will read scenes and speeches from Henry IV, Part I, Henry V, Richard III, The Tempest, As You Like It, Hamlet, MacBeth, Othello, Taming of the Shrew and Julius Caesar.

The program is a part of the Arkansas Art Center State Services Program, which is made possible through an appropriation from the Arkansas General Assembly.

The Artmobile and Tell-A-Tale Troupe, also part of the State Services Program, have already visited Hope.

The Rev. William Risinger, Jr., Vicar of St. Mark's, invites the public to this performance. There is no charge for admission.

FAA Reports On U.S. Hijacking

By VERN HAUGLAND
AP Aviation Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Over the last 11 years, 188 persons have hijacked 142 U.S. planes. The Federal Aviation Administration says 105 are still fugitives.

"We're making progress, but we have to stay on top of it," Transportation Secretary John A. Volpe said after a tabulation of records showed nine of the last 16 attempts have ended with the capture or death of the hijacker.

Volpe observed that both the number of hijackings attempted and those successfully carried out declined over the past three years—from 34 successful out of 40 tried in 1969, 16 of 31 in 1970 to 11 of 25 in 1971.

"To date this year, only three hijackings out of 14 have been successful," Volpe said.

James M. Beggs, undersecretary, said Monday he believes the courts, taking action against accused hijackers, have been "responsive—they have done as well as one could expect." But, Beggs added, he still finds it hard to accept that it takes a year or more to bring an accused man to trial.

Bank Robber Captured

DALLAS (AP) — Teller Pat-ty Cole told police a man handed a note into her window Monday afternoon at the First Continental Bank warning, "You can live or die. Give me all the money or I'll mess up that pretty face."

Officers said she surrendered about $1,300 in a paper sack and the robber ran across a parking lot and fled in a car driven by another man.

Detectives reported a former employe of a nearby store was halted soon afterward in a car of the same description and held for questioning.

Woman Testifies In May Trial

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A 20-year-old woman testified in Circuit Court here Monday that she paid $150 to Alderman John O. May of North Little Rock to perform an abortion on her at his home in 1970.

Mrs. Beverly Kay Kuykendall of North Little Rock testified in the trial of May on a charge of inducing an abortion. May has pleaded innocent and has contended the charge was politically motivated.

The state rested its case after hearing testimony from eight witnesses.

Mrs. Kuykendall said the abortion was performed on Oct. 9, 1970, at the home of May, who is one of five candidates for the Democratic nomination for mayor of North Little Rock.

Complications later caused her to be hospitalized for four days, Mrs. Kuykendall said.

Under cross-examination, she said she related the details of the abortion to Pros. Atty. Jim Guy Tucker in seeking leniency for her brother, who had been arrested on a drug charge.

Defense attorney Jack Lessenberry told the jury in his opening statement that on Oct. 9, 1970, May and a Mrs. Dixie Matthews went to DeValls Bluff and that it was May's birthday.

At that time, Lessenberry said, the alderman and Mrs. May were separated and May did not live at the home in which the abortion allegedly took place.

Inducing an abortion is punishable by a fine of up to $1,000 and a prison term of one to five years. May was indicted April 11 by the Pulaski County Grand Jury.

Explosion Wrecks Bar In Belfast

BELFAST (AP) — An explosion wrecked a Protestant bar in Belfast late Monday night, injuring 17 persons and sending Protestant youths on a rampage.

It was the second bar bombed in three days. A Roman Catholic tavern was demolished Saturday, touching off a 36-hour Catholic-Protestant battle in which nine persons were killed and more than 70 wounded.

A 50-pound bomb in a parked car shattered the Bluebell Tavern in Sandy Row, a Protestant district in East Belfast. Three girls, 7, 10, and 13 years old, were among the casualties.

Protestant youths threw up barricades around the street, while others charged into a nearby business district, hurling rocks at offices and smashing in windows with clubs.

Police said "older and wiser heads" finally persuaded the youths to return home, and Protestant residents removed the barricades.

The two bar bombings and the reaction that followed heightened fears of civil war between the Protestant majority and the Catholic minority.

Babe Ruth League Action

In Babe Ruth League action last night at Legion Field Corn Belt won over Citizens by a score of 7 to 2 in the first game of the night, and First National was the winner over Blevins, 3 to 2.

James Robinson was the pitcher for the winners in the first game, allowing 2 hits and striking out 5. Jim Rhodes and Clay O'steen were the pitchers for the losers. The leading hitter was Mike McCorkle with 2 singles and 1 double. Jim Rhodes was the leading hitter for Citizens with one triple and one single.

The second game Ricky Faucett was on the mound for the winners. He allowed five hits and struck out two. Mark Spears was the pitcher for the losers. He struck out 12 and allowed only 1 hit. Hitter was Dave Bramlett with 1 for 2 times at bat.

Thursday night games will be Anderson Frazier vs Merchants at 6:30 and Citizens taking on First National in the second game.

Results of Study Revealed

ITHACA, N.Y. (AP) — A study into the breeding habits and early life patterns of eagles has resulted in what is believed the first hatching through artificial insemination of the golden eagle species.

James W. Grier, a Cornell University graduate student who headed the project, said that attempts to pair captive adult golden eagles through natural mating were unsuccessful, resulting in the decision to use the artificial insemination technique.

This involved the injection of male semen into a female bird with a syringe. The female egg, thus fertilized, was removed and placed in an incubator at the university.

The result: two golden eagle chicks who are now gathering strength before being released to the wilds.

The first eagle cracked his shell May 11 and weighed in at 3½ ounces. The second followed two days later, and five others are expected to see life at regular intervals until the last day of this month.

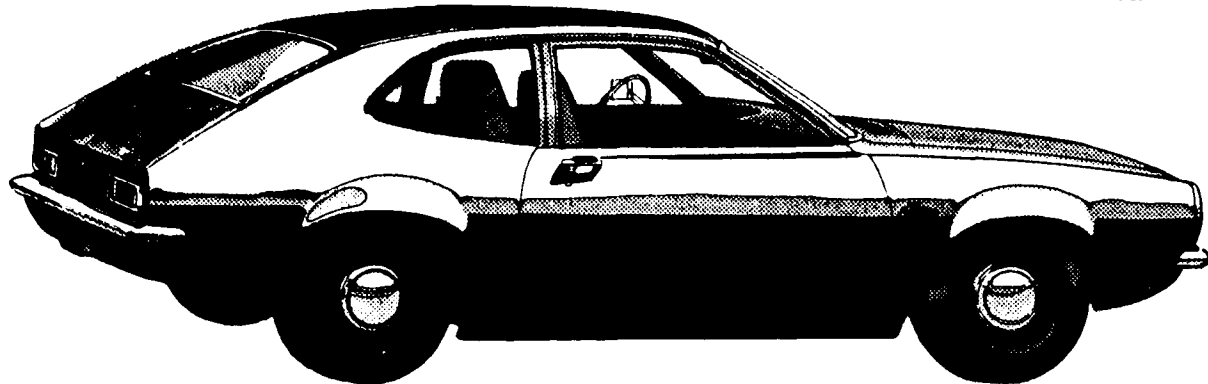

Eight of the 12 National League baseball parks seat 50,000 or more fans.
